

Community Market Vendor Form

Name of Vendor: _____

Name of Stall: _____

Mobile Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Brief description of what is being sold or displayed at the stall:

Market date: _____

Selling food

Note: All vendors must provide a Health Certificate

This is available by contacting Elva Gela at the Department of Environmental Health on 8922 7522 or elva.gela@nt.gov.au.

If you do not have a Health Certificate you will not be given a table.

Although the approach of the NT Department of Health has shifted to a 'living with COVID' approach, please remain mindful of the risk of transmission and ensure you have hand sanitizer on your stall.

The cooking of food in the main Town Hall area by use of baking, roasting, boiling, or deep frying is not permitted – the foyer (tiled area) can be used for the stalls.

Require power

Note: Vendor must have electrical cords & appliances tested & tagged

Please call Goodline, KMJ or Morningside.

- 1. Vendor to wipe down tables & chairs after market. Immediate area must be left clean and tidy.
- 2. All Vendors must have hand sanitizer – 70% grade ethanol on display at each stall
- 3. All Food Vendors must have a 20L container filled with potable water with tap, a supply of liquid soap, a supply of paper towel and a bucket to collect waste water
- 4. Area must be vacated within 15 minutes of the closing time for stall vendors and within 1 hour of the Markets ending for the host.
- 5. Nhulunbuy Corporation will endeavour to provide you with table requested, but this cannot always be guaranteed. Where space is limited, preference will be given to regular stallholders.
- 6. The contact details for the host will be provided to vendors prior to the markets as they are the first point of call for any issue on the day or inability to attend.
- 7. The cost of holding a market stall is $25 payable in cash on the day.
- 8. There is NO In-Kind Support for any stall vendors as all monies go to a host who is fundraising.

Space for these Markets is limited. A cancellation fee will be required if cancelled on the day of the markets
